

Other Comments:

I believe broadcasters should be able to copyright material so that I can not redistribute the material for a profit. I do NOT believe that should keep me from making a copy to view later or send to a friend. I also do NOT believe it should keep me from building a device to record a TV show since I am an electronic experimenter.